

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz, a graduate of Truman State University with a degree in history and a minor in philosophy, has been distinguished as an intern for the Honorable Rachel Storch, Missouri State Representative; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz, a resident of Florissant, joined the staff of Representative Rachel Storch during the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, as a part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz has experienced the opportunity to observe first-hand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz has successfully demonstrated abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Rachel Storch run smoothly; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz is currently between his second and third years of law school at the University of Missouri School of Law, and he scored a 162 on the LSAT with only three weeks of preparation; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz enjoys the love and support of a devoted family that includes his parents, Mark and Gail Bretz; his grandfather, Robert Bretz; his grandmothers, Ann Marie Bretz and Mary Ellen Wood; and his brothers, Matthew Bretz and Andrew Bretz, and Andrew's wife, Lisa; and

Whereas, Anthony Stuart Bretz has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Rachel Storch and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of the knowledge and skills acquired prior this experience and has attained a variety of new skills which will be of tremendous value in wherever life's path may lead:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, proudly join the Honorable Rachel Storch in commending Anthony Stuart Bretz for the many important contributions to our State Legislature during the session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Anthony Stuart Bretz, as a measure of our gratitude.
